Today, Corporate Security learned of an armed robbery that took place on Saturday January 18, 2020 at approximately 10:15pm in the 1800 Block of E. Fairmount Avenue between N. Ann and N. Wolfe Streets. A JH Affiliate was walking eastbound on E. Fairmount Avenue when they were approached from behind by two suspects, one male and one female. The male suspect said don’t turn around, just keep walking. The victim turned and saw the two suspects, each holding a small black handgun. Both suspects told the victim to turn around and the male suspect said give me your keys, wallet and cell phone. The victim complied with the demand and was then instructed to keep walking and not to turn around. The suspects fled in an unknown direction after they could not start the victim’s car. The victim, who was not injured during the robbery, reported the incident directly to the Baltimore Police Department.
